Moving Forward

partnership aspiring to reduce HIV infections among adolescent instance, we are beginning to overlap our medical education broader pediatric and adolescent HIV initiatives, globally. For Through collaborations, we are working to align our efforts with countries.

we hope to roll-out some of these care models in New Horizons young people’s participation – we have seen very high retention

As we grow the Collaborative, we will work to further engage programmes, including those not yet eligible for participation in

New Horizons, including:

• Potential for an open Expression of Interest process

We are exploring new approaches to expand the reach of appropriate treatment over the course of their life journey they’re being diagnosed quickly, and getting them on the

After many learnings since our launch in 2013, we have appropriately address pediatric HIV treatment failure.

This Fall, we will

Stakeholder Update, September 2016

Dear Friends,

We are happy to update you on all the exciting progress we have made as part of the New Horizons. Advancing Pediatric HIV Care Programme Updates

New Horizons Included in WHO Treatment Guidelines

As of August 2016, the New Horizons drug donation programme was included in the latest World Health Organization (WHO) treatment guidelines as an access modality for darunavir for children

We are pleased to announce that Uganda has been invited to participate in New Horizons, selected by an independent Review Committee and an advisory panel for its potential to address the need for third-line

We are happy to announce that Uganda has been invited to participate in New Horizons, selected by an independent Review Committee and an advisory panel for its potential to address the need for third-line

• An implementation workshop in Kampala, Uganda (October 2016)

We have many more developments forthcoming over the next few months. Highlights include:

• An educational workshop in New York (July 2016)

New Horizons Pediatric HIV Care Collaborative

The New Horizons team explored the importance of monitoring and evaluation of the medico-educative programme in the New Horizons technical workshop for all participating countries, convened by

We are pleased to update you on all the exciting progress we have made as part of the New Horizons. Advancing Pediatric HIV Care

Shared Learnings

International AIDS Conference, Durban 2016

July marked the 21st International AIDS Conference in Durban, South Africa, where pediatric and adolescent HIV care was a prime focus of discussion. New Horizons was featured in key sessions:

• A technical workshop for all participating countries, convened by

• An implementation workshop in Kampala, Uganda (October 2016)

New Horizons Pediatric HIV Care Collaborative

The New Horizons team explored the importance of monitoring and evaluation of the medico-educative programme in the New Horizons technical workshop for all participating countries, convened by

We are happy to announce that Uganda has been invited to participate in New Horizons, selected by an independent Review Committee and an advisory panel for its potential to address the need for third-line

Moving Forward

We have many more developments forthcoming over the next few

An introduction to our work with other pediatric and adolescent HIV programmes, globally. For

We are happy to announce that Uganda has been invited to participate in New Horizons, selected by an independent Review Committee and an advisory panel for its potential to address the need for third-line

• A technical workshop for all participating countries, convened by

• An implementation workshop in Kampala, Uganda (October 2016)

New Horizons Pediatric HIV Care Collaborative

The New Horizons team explored the importance of monitoring and evaluation of the medico-educative programme in the New Horizons technical workshop for all participating countries, convened by

We are happy to announce that Uganda has been invited to participate in New Horizons, selected by an independent Review Committee and an advisory panel for its potential to address the need for third-line